To make the competition fair to more skill levels, we ask that you decide to compete with either Group A or Group B, A being the more professional.

Registration is $20 for both groups.

Group A

For the more professional or seasoned artists. Show off your experience the only way you can - if you're a blooming flower in the art world are just getting started with quick draws, this is the group for you!

Group B

High School

MFA invites high school students to participate in their own group with a grand prize of new art supplies provided by Art Things Annapolis!

Registration for high school students is free!
