Paint Annapolis 2022

Public Artists Terms and Conditions

Please read the entirety of this document. By having your painting surfaces stamped, you are agreeing to all of the following terms and conditions.

ARTWORK

1. It is required that all artwork have a Paint Annapolis 2022 registration stamp visible and accessible to be exhibited. Stamping will occur at the Paint Annapolis Pop Up Gallery (4 Church Circle, Annapolis, MD 21401). Panels, paper, and canvases must be blank before stamping.
2. All artwork must be painted en plein air during the week of Paint Annapolis within the designated painting boundaries, without the use of photographs.
3. All artwork submitted for exhibition, awards, and/or sales must be framed, wired, and ready to hang. NO EXCEPTIONS. Artwork that is not ready for hanging will not be displayed. Artwork, including mat and frame, may not exceed 32 inches in any direction.
4. Artists may paint as many pieces as they want, but only two (2) pieces painted during the week and one (1) nocturne may be submitted for the Paint Annapolis Pop Up Gallery.

EXHIBITION

1. All works submitted for exhibition must be painted en plein air during Paint Annapolis 2022 and within the areas designated for that day. Artwork without a visible Paint Annapolis stamp will not be hung.
2. Artists may submit two (2) pieces painted during the week and one (1) nocturne painted during the designated nocturne times for the Paint Annapolis Exhibition. The pieces hung in the Pop Up Gallery will be the ones juried for awards.
3. Artwork to be submitted for exhibition and jurying must be dropped off at the Pop Up Gallery no later than Friday, June 10 at 12 PM. No late work will be accepted.
4. Artwork created during Paint Annapolis may be exhibited in the Paint Annapolis online gallery. Artists may upload their two (2) pieces and one (1) nocturne that they would like juried for awards online using a special link MFA staff will send the week of the event. It is the artist's responsibility to post their work by June 10 at 12 PM.
5. Work submitted for exhibition and awards will hang in the Paint Annapolis Pop Up Gallery from June 10 – 15.
6. Artists must pick up their unsold artwork between June 16 – 18. Artists who have not collected their work by June 19 will be charged a $30 late fee. Work not picked up within 90 days becomes the property of MFA.

SALES

1. Paintings submitted for the exhibition must be available for sale.
2. Artists receive 60% of the purchase price for any work sold throughout Paint Annapolis.
3. Only MFA personnel may complete a sale.
4. By participating in Paint Annapolis, artists agree not to conduct sales or presales of their paintings outside the commission structure. Commission proceeds for all sales support current and future Paint Annapolis events and help MFA achieve our mission to create meaningful connections in the community through art.
5. MFA will notify artists if their piece sells during the exhibition.

LIABILITY

1. All work will be handled with all possible care. However, pieces submitted for exhibition are at the artist's risk. In the event of damage or theft, MFA will not be held liable. If insurance is desired, the artist must carry it.
